SUBJECT Dismissal of High Officials in the Yugoslav Railroad Directorate in Belgrade

NO. OF PAGES 1

NO. OF ENCLS.
(LISTED BELOW)

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. The Director of the Main Directorate of Yugoslav Railroads in Belgrade, B. Bogavac, has been discharged and is under investigation for having helped the Cominformist resistance movement.
2. The Assistant Director of the Railroad Directorates of Ljubljana and Sent Peter na Krasu, Anton Dvornik, will allegedly be discharged because the authorities have established that his son, Sava, is not dead, but has been in Argentina since 1945 as a Domobran (Croatian Army) fugitive. Anton Dvornik had reportedly pretended that his son was dead.
